Looking for Volunteer and/or Service Opportunities?

The list of volunteer opportunities/needs throughout the United States is growing. There are many new opportunities that will have UCC long-term volunteer leaders and tools in place, specifically South Carolina, New Jersey & Texas. This new approach will help make the volunteer experience more productive, enjoyable and organized. Teams are needed in many locations. An updated list of needs can be found at ucc.org/disaster_disaster-volunteers. For more information contact Karl Jones at kjones275@comcast.net or 570-617-4018.

Back Bay Mission will open its 2017 Mission Trip Calendar on January 1, 2016. Mission immersion experiences at Back Bay Mission are a great opportunity to serve the poor and marginalized of the Mississippi Gulf Coast while learning about poverty and social justice. They’re also a wonderful chance to build relationships within your congregation and with other congregations who are serving at the Mission. To learn more, visit <https://thebackbaymission.org/>.

Prayers are requested for Tabernacle United Church in Philadelphia and Rev. Kathryn Aikins.
