Sabbath Reading for Preachers

October 24-26, 2017
Mariawald Renewal Center
1094 Welsh Road
Reading, PA 19607

We believe...

We believe that renewal in our congregations begins with the care and renewal of pastors – those charged with the spiritual care and feeding of congregations.

We believe that if the church is to have a future in this radically different postmodern world it will be a future we discover through the poets and visionaries, the artists, writers, and preachers. It will unfold out of Sabbath time and experiments in new orders of servanthood, out of prayer and worship and charity in the old rich sense of that word. It will be disclosed in quiet solitude, in small group gatherings around the Word, and in the midst of the world's cries of pain.

We believe that the age of the church planner is rapidly drawing to a close and the future of the Church will unfold out of the recovery of Sabbath.

We invite you to...

Sabbath Reading for Preachers

October 24-26, 2017

Facilitated by

Daniel Moser and Hilary Barrett
Sabbath Time Ministries

We invite you to experience 3 days of Sabbath-keeping and renewal in the middle of the week. We will gather at the Mariawald Renewal Center in Shillington, PA. You will spend three days with 15 other colleagues. It will be a time of nourishing rest and reflection, beginning Tuesday morning and ending mid-afternoon on Thursday.

Our time together will include reflections on six works of literature chosen by the leaders. We will examine these books together to savor the writers' craft, to enter into the story, and to hear what these works have to say to us as preachers and human beings.

All participants will receive these reading materials in advance of our time together. Participants must covenant to give themselves the gift of time to read the books before they arrive.
