God Is Doing Something Right Now

It is Christmas Eve! Merry Christmas! I hope you are enjoying a wonderful celebration surrounded by the people you love and who love you. I hope every expectation you had for this holiday season has become real.

But if you are far from home or feel distant from those who are very near, if there is more tension than cheer in the air, if you are exhausted, or feel let-down, or if your life feels like an unlikely place for Jesus to show up—pay particular attention. Because Jesus is always showing up in unlikely places, including perhaps the most unlikely place of all— in this moment of your life.

The news of Jesus' birth is announced not in a palace or a temple, not where things are bright and beautiful, not to good people, or the right people. Shepherds, poor and smelly people, were the first to get the news; and the first to share it. As surprising as this would have been at the time, in retrospect it seems entirely fitting. Jesus is forever showing up in the most unlikely places and associating with the most surprising people. And the message is always the same—God is doing something right now.

"In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night... The angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ, the Lord."

It's the only announcement that ever changed the world. I hope it's the one that will change yours -- if it has not already.

With prayers for a changed world. Merry Christmas!

Training the Volunteers who Make It Happen!

The effectiveness of any mission or ministry endeavor relies, in part, on faithful and effective leadership. Our Conference "2020 Vision" plan has a priority developing stronger leadership skills (lay and authorized ministers) in every congregation, their pastors, consistories and ministry teams.

First UCC Royersford, through the PSEC New Ministries Grant Program, has built this leadership training tool.
