

January 20, 2019

Y.E.S.—Youth Empowerment Sunday

Attention YOUTH—Don't miss this great event, just for You!

February 16th

12:00 pm—6:00 pm

@ The Episcopal Mission Center

5421 Germantown Ave., Philadelphia, PA 19144

Focus Scripture: Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind and Love your neighbor as yourself—Luke 10:27

The day will include:

- Teen-led worship
- Music from F.U.E.L.
- Food
- Conversations on the topics of Racism, Sexuality, Bulling and Gun Violence
- Interactive Art Activity
- Time to make new friendships and connections

Fee: $5.00

Register at: <https://psecyouthyes.eventbrite.com>

The Significance of Martin Luther King, Jr. for Today's Church and World"

An invitation to our churches of PNE and PSE Conferences for Martin Luther King, Jr. Sunday, January 20, 2019 from Conference Ministers; Rev. Dr. Bonnie Bates, Rev. William P. Worley and Rev. Dr. David Charles Smith, Ashley Snyder and Rev. Dr. Martha Kriebel.

"As we remember being guests of our German partners in the Anhalt District Church and the Berlin Mission in August, 2018, the theme for the week-long Colloguy challenges us now: The Significance of Martin Luther King, Jr. for Today's Church and World".

One stop was to visit Berlin's Martin Luther King Church constructed after the assassination of Dr. King in 1968. It marks the spot where he spoke on the Eastern side of the Wall in the Russian Zone. Every Sunday the congregation sings 'We shall overcome', worships beside this banner, and remembers his hope-filled words, The Arc of the Moral Universe Bends Towards Justice.

The questions we brought home from that August Colloguy are what we continue to ask, and on this MLK Jr. Sunday, pass on to each of you, are:

- What am I called to do?
- Where do we go from here as a church? As Individuals?

As we take up the mission (announced in the Colloguy) that will have us, as individuals and congregations, Reclaiming the Hope of Martin Luther King, Jr. Today.

- Prepared by the Ecumenical Relations Mission Team of
PNE and PSE Conferences