

Facing Your Church's Uncertain Future

Webinar from the UCC Church Building & Loan Fund

Thursday, May 2 ~ 3:30-4:50p

When your church's future is uncertain, it's time to have courageous conversations and make faithful decisions. Ministry in these congregations calls for faithful, honest (and often difficult) conversations that pastors and/or their congregations might sadly avoid. Facing Your Church's Uncertain Future is a NEW resource that offers good practices for discerning, discussing, and making decisions that concern a church's future. Pastors and congregational leaders are invited to join in this zoom webinar presenting theological, liturgical and helpful insights for congregations, including closure and legacy.

Webinar presenters are: Rev. Quentin Chin, author of the Worship Resources on Discernment, Decision-Making and Closure; and Rev. David Schoen, author of Facing Your Church's Uncertain Future: Helpful Practices for Courageous Conversations & Faithful Decisions.

Options to view:

At the Conference Office: Join Conference staff and other church leaders and pastors to watch the webinar together at the Conference administrative center in Pottstown. This option is free of charge, but spaces are limited so please RSVP to brea@psec.org.

Watch on your own: Register to connect to the webinar on your own. Register by April 18 at <http://facing-your-churchs-uncertain-future-webinar.eventbrite.com>. The cost is $5 for the webinar or $10 for the webinar and a copy of the UCC Church Building & Loan Fund resource Facing Your Church's Uncertain Future.
