Webinar on the Youth Climate Movement as a Moral Force

On Fridays throughout the world this past year, students walked out of classrooms and went into the streets to compel action in addressing the climate crisis. What started as a one-person protest by Greta Thunberg has grown to a movement of millions in over 160 countries and at least 2000 locations.

Youth are now calling upon adults to join them for a week of action in September. This month's Creation Justice Webinar will prepare us for action by featuring Jamie Margolin, the 17-year-old who has been at the forefront of the youth climate movement in the United States. She led the call for last year's youth climate march, and she is a co-founder of the youth organization Zero Hour. The webinar will be held on Aug. 15 at 1:00p, but a recording will be sent out to all who register. Register today at:
