Advancing Sexual Health for the Christian Clergy

Fee: $20.00 / 1:00 pm—4:00 pm

It is a given that few pastors receive training in sexuality even though we are often put in positions to counsel people with intimacy and relationship concerns. It is also true that the Western Christian Church has dogma that has been harmful to people's self-esteem and ability to enter and maintain healthy relationships. Using some of the insights from the book "Advancing Sexual Health for the Christian Client" coauthored by Beverly Dale, this workshop will identify some of the religious sources for intimacy problems and offer some of the tools to assist in pastoral counseling situations. The workshop will include lecture, discussion and experiential exercises.
