Next Computer-Side Chat on Shared Ministry Models

The December Computer Side Chat will be a conversation about Shared Ministries. We have several congregations in our Conference and throughout the denomination that have made a shift from a full-time pastor to a part time pastor. Sometimes those congregations partner with another congregation who made the same shift. The pastor is then full-time serving two congregations.

For a variety of reasons congregations that reach a certain number of members are hesitant to consider merging with another congregation. One of the solutions I have seen is that of SHARING ministry with another congregation. Sometimes it is only sharing one pastor who serves two congregations and sometimes it is an actual sharing of not only a pastor but a sharing of ministry while maintaining two locations.

If you are interested and your congregation is considering this possibility or if you are just curious in the conversation, please join Rev. Dr. Susan Minasian on Dec. 8 (This Tuesday) at 7:00pm for an hour of conversation about Shared Ministries. For the link to join or info to phone in, email brea@psec.org.
