

BIO for The Rev. Dr. Drew Hart:

Regularly speaking across the country, Drew Hart brings together his pastoral experience with his academic training to challenge the Church on a variety of topics. He has been particularly invested in writing and speaking about white supremacy/racism and their entanglements with western Christianity. His books include: Who Will Be A Witness?: Igniting Activism for God's Justice, Love, and Deliverance. and Trouble I've Seen. Dr. Hart calls the church to an active Christian discipleship that embodies Christ in the liberation of the oppressed through radical peacemaking and nonviolent resistance.
