

Moderators report. Pennsylvania Southeast Conference, June 2024.

“Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth. Worship the LORD with gladness; come before him with joyful songs”.

Psalms 100 celebrates the joy of worship and gratitude. Urging all to enter God's presence with singing and Thanksgiving, recognizing his goodness and eternal love. It emphasizes the universal call to praise God, joyfully acknowledging His sovereignty over all creation and his everlasting faithfulness towards humanity.

I'm humbled to present my annual Report, a culmination of our collective efforts guided by the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Firstly, I extend heartfelt gratitude to all clergy, lay leaders and congregations for their unwavering commitment to faith, service, and community.

I'm immensely thankful for the exceptional support provided by our dedicated staff members. Whose tireless efforts have facilitated the smooth functioning of our conference their dedication and passion have been instrumental. In advancing our mission and serving our congregations with excellence, Susan Creswell, Brea Rarick, Tammie Wisniewski, and others

A special acknowledgement goes to the diligent members of the planning committee whose meticulous attention to detail and strategic vision have ensured the success of our various initiatives and events throughout the year and especially this year at State College.

I express my deepest appreciation to the consistory for generously sharing their talents and wisdom, and time in guiding the direction of our conference. Your leadership and commitment have been invaluable in fostering a spirit of unity and growth within our conference.

Are that more? I extend heartfelt thanks to officers of Consistory. Vice Moderator and Moderators Designate Rev. Melissa Burkhart for her immense commitment to Conference. Rev. Bob Fogle and now Rev. Kenneth McDowell for their exemplary service in the role of treasurer, your financial stewardship and dedication have been instrumental in maintaining the financial integrity of our conference, enabling us to fulfill our mission and vision effectively.

As my term comes to close. I've profoundly grateful for the opportunity to serve alongside such devoted individuals. who have exemplified the spirit of Christ through their actions and service. Together, let us continue to uplift and support one another as we strive to advance Course Kingdom, and spread his love to all.

PSEC has established strong ecumenical relations with the churches in Germany, Japan, Haiti. Guatemala and church of South India is a pivotal for forcing unity and collaboration within the global Christian community. As we gather for annual conference, we extend a warm invitation to our esteemed guests from India to join us in this significant endeavor. Through dialogue, mutual respect and understanding, we aim to strengthen the bonds that unite us in our shared Faith. By engaging in meaningful exchanges of ideas and experiences, we can enrich ourselves as we do from each other's spiritual journeys and working towards common goals of social justice and peace. Embracing diversity as a source of strength and inspiration is imperative as we strive to build bridges of solidarity across continents and cultures. Together, let us envision a future where our collective efforts towards love, compassion and reconciliation transcend any boundaries or differences.

I would like to recognize our esteemed guests, Bishop Rueban Mark; P.I Jose, Supreme Court of India Attorney; Jayaker Daniel, YMCA president and Member of Medak Diocese, Dr John clergy from Karimnagar Diocese.

I would like to express my thanks to Revs. William Worley, Kevin McLemore and Cean James for their leadership, extra ordinary support and for timely guidance, insights and reminders that have helped me to fulfill my duties effortlessly.

I take privilege to express my thanks to my family for their prayers and unconditional support to my wonderful wife Dr Indira Burani, my son Onyx Kuthuru, daughter in law Danielle Kuthuru, Grandson Carmi Amiri Kuthuru, my daughter Oliva Kuthuru and not the least our favorite pets Bruno and Tucker.

Once again, I thank you all who are present here and who are unable to be here for your continued prayer's and support and the Conference who assisted me in various ways and encouraged me along this journey as Moderator, continue to pray.

Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest."

Charles Devasukumar Kuthuru
