The Keystone Conference Needs a Logo

What does any entity looking for quick recognition do? They develop a logo that will be easily recognized by all. Think of the immediate recognition of the Nike, Apple, Starbucks and McDonalds logos. Each one immediately connects you to the company it represents.

The newly forming Keystone Conference is no different. It is a new entity and it needs a logo!

We want to give any one of our members, who are interested, the opportunity to submit such a logo. The submission form lists the rules and suggestions for entry. The deadline to submit is May 15.

Let your creativity flow and perhaps it will be your logo which will represent our new Keystone Conference!
Find the submission form by going to psec.org, click on the Keystone Study Group slider at the top of the page. Once on the Keystone Study Group page, scroll down to the information about the logo.
