Deadline is Near to Submit a Logo for the Keystone Conference

What does any entity looking for quick recognition do? They develop a logo that will be easily recognized by all. Think of the immediate recognition of the Nike, Apple, Starbucks and McDonalds logos. Each one immediately connects you to the company it represents. The newly forming Keystone Conference is no different. It is a new entity and it needs a logo!

We want to give any one of our members, who are interested, the opportunity to submit such a logo. For additional information go to psec.org, click on the Keystone Study Group slider on the home page. Then scroll down on that page to the submit a logo information. The deadline to submit is May 15.

Let your creativity flow and perhaps it will be your logo which will represent our new Keystone Conference!
